Headquarters for Diamonds SANDOVAL COUNTY REPUBLICANS NAME TICKET

Winning List of Candidates Named in Meeting Which Lasts Through Two Days Attendance Large.

In an enthusiastic meeting held Wednesday and Thursday at Bernallillo the Republicans of Sandoval county nominated a ticket of strong Republicans. The convention was one of the best attended, as well as one of the most enthusiastic, ever held in the northern county. The session was harmonious throughout, and from all indications the ticket will poll an even larger majority of votes than have usually gone to swell the Republican column.

The ticket is as follows:

Representative from Sandoval county, E. M. Sandoval; Sheriff, Cornelio M. Sandoval; Treasurer, Alejandro Sandoval; Assessor, Delfin Baca.

Probate Judge, Perceval Ortiz; County Clerk, Alfredo Montoya; Superintendent of schools, Eduardo D. Salazar.

Commissioners: First district, M. Reyes Lucero; second district, C. G. Gonzalez; third district, Francisco C. de Baca.

Surveyor, E. M. Fenton.

A SUGGESTION.

If you are thinking of Christmas photographs, we would suggest a visit to the Walton Photographic Studio, where the correct mountings and finishings will be shown. Attendance at the St. Paul National Convention this summer, where the best photographers of the world met and exchanged ideas, enabled us to keep abreast of the times and our patrons are assured of satisfaction in every detail.

We do not make cheap photographs but we do claim to make photographs of the better sort at reasonable prices.

ANOTHER PRISONER ARRESTED, BUT NOT BY ROMERO

REGISTRATION IS REFUSED IN BARELAS

Board Holds One Hour Session
Early in Morning and Then Hides Out Balance of Day, Refuses to Take Old List.

Registration was refused a number of voters whose names appeared upon the last registration list by the board of registration in Los Barelas last Saturday, when Attorney F. E.
Wood went down to the southern pene-tral with a list to be put on the rolls.
The board was missing, but a sign upon the door of the registration place and office in the front room of the house, said they had been in session from 7 to 8 that morning, and would be in session from 1 to 2 o'clock, that afternoon.

The law specifically requires that the board of registration be in session at all times upon the last day that the books are open.

Mr. Wood went on a still hunt for the board and found out that Tomas A. Gurule, one of the members was ill, and that the other two were not at their homes, nor did their families know where to find them.

After a long search he found them and presented a list of names taken from the registration list of the last election. They refused to enter it upon the rolls. He then presented a sworn statement that they had been registered previously and were legal voters. It was again refused. Finally, upon a writ of mandamus, they registered the list.

George Corry, former governor and a candidate for election to the United States congress, spent Saturday night in the city.

A marriage license was issued to day to Maria Francesca Oguin and Diego Jimon. Both are Pueblo Indians and live at Isleta.

Lumberman A. A. Wynn of the forest service has returned from the Pecos national forest, where he has been engaged upon timber sale work.

V. E. Lowther, who was called to Newark, Del., by the death of his mother recently, returned to the city this morning on the California limited.

The young people of the Lutheran church have arranged a Halloween social for tomorrow night at Mr. Albers' residence in Barelas. A number of novel stunts have been planned and a good time is promised all who attend.

Many inquiries have been made as why the street cars persist in stopping just beyond the crossings so that prospective passengers must wade through the slime that now covers the streets in order to get aboard. It is because of an ordinance recently passed by the city council requiring the cars to stop at the crossings under penalty of a fine of $15 to $25.

The police have in their charge a lad named Ray Bush, whose mother died here a short time ago leaving him an orphan. "Roy" is out of work and the local officers are looking after him until he can be located somewhere. At the time of his mother's death a younger brother was sent somewhere in Colorado to a home, and the officers want to put the boy, who is a bright young fellow, in the same place or a similar one.
